the more length you're getting in the rise, the longer your legs look."

embassy are non-violent and non-confrontational, and range from home invasions to simple pick-pocketing, purse-snatching, and theft of personal items from parked cars.

and these stories were personal for me, because I remember my mother worrying about how she was going to deal with her finances when she got very sick.

assistants. pam plants a seed: that it's especially brutal and inhumane for cyril to be witnessing all