most people believe that the practice of vasectomy started in 1950 but the concept of male birth control dates as far back as the 1640's when the first known condoms were used.